

Welcome to

Most churches can't reach their people when they need to, especially between Sundays, or if a person stops showing up on Sundays

+ Email and texting are the most effective means of communication—they are "the new home address"

Successful communication is the biggest barrier to a thriving church community

5 Key Problems for Churches

- 1. Unable to reliably reach people when they need to
- 2. Ministries operating in silos and not sharing resources
- 3. Software tools are not generally user-friendly
- 4. Lack of a smooth experience for your members
- 5. Software tools are generally very expensive
